Surf Drowns Napa Man At Dillon Beach

Bank Clerk Loses Footing In Tidal Pool While Wading

A 23-year-old Napa bank clerk drowned in the rough surf off Dillon Beach Saturday afternoon when he stepped in a deep tidal pool while making his way back to shore.
He was identified as Thomas McNeil, an employee of the Bank of America and father of a 2-year-old child.
Deputy Sheriff George H. Tsegeleto and another member of the sheriff's underwater rescue unit began diving for McNeil's body about 11 a.m. today when the surf calmed. Local residents said the body probably would not be swept to sea. A tidal pool is a deep hole off shore made by the action of water against a sandy beach.

McNeil's companion, Ronald R. Hunter, 21, of Napa, told Sheriff's Deputy Harvey E. Teague that his family and McNeil's were picnicking on the beach when the men decided to take a dip about 3 p.m.
CHEST DEEP
They entered the water on a sand bar and went out until it was chest-deep. Suddenly, finding themselves unable to touch bottom, both turned to head for shore. That was the last Hunter saw of McNeil.
Hunter obtained help from Neil H. and Gibbs Lawson of Dillon Beach. Neil Lawson said the spot where the pair lost their footing was about six feet deep. He believed McNeil could have floated with the current and lifted himself out of the treacherous pit had he been experienced enough, but surmised that he panicked and tried to fight the current.

'Name' Fighter Sought For Rodriguez Bout

With the California lightweight championship back in his possession, San Anselmo's Sixto Rodriguez looked forward to meeting a "name" opponent, perhaps in July, Manager Karl Ashley said today.
Ashley couldn't divulge the name of Sixto's next opponent, only to say, "We're angling to get a ranked fighter out here for a bout in Oakland."

Friday night the lanky San Anselmo boxer recaptured the state crown with a unanimous and convincing 12-round decision over Monroe Ratliff of San Diego in the border town. Official score cards gave Rodriguez the nod by 119 to 110, 118-112 and 117-112.

There were no knockdowns, but Rodriguez staggered Ratliff three times.
Ratliff had gained the title by outpointing Rodriguez in January.

Angel Isle May Close

Angel Island State Park, which opened last June, may be temporarily closed again soon.
Construction work on the island is creating hazards for the public, according to the state Division of Beaches and Parks.
L. P. Griffith, assistant district superintendent, said it may be necessary to close the park until the $90,000 construction project, which includes docks and sanitary and water facilities, is completed. Completion is scheduled for mid-September.

Boy Severely Cut By Glass Door

Paul Bartolini chased his little sister right through a glass door yesterday at his home at 416 Marin avenue, Mill Valley. He received severe lacerations under each arm which were sutured at Marin General Hospital.

JOYOUS QUEEN — Sandra Lee Lazzari, Novato High School junior, beams with pride as she holds trophy representing her selection Saturday night as "Maid of Marin" and queen of Novato's Western Weekend. She'll preside over festivities Saturday and Sunday at Novato, and will compete in the "Maid of California" contest at the state fair in Sacramento Aug. 30.

Novato High Coed 'Maid Of Marin'

Sandra Lee Lazzari, 16-year-old Novato High School junior, has been selected as "Maid of Marin" and queen of Novato's Western Weekend.
Sandra is a daughter of Maj. and Mrs. M. E. Lazzari of 723 Bradley avenue, Novato. She won the double title in competition with seven other finalists—all Novato High School girls—Saturday night at judging in the Marion School multipurpose room.
Selected as the queen's attendants were Mary Lou Schlecht, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Schlecht of 940 Bruno street, and Betty Webb, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon C. Webb of 2029 Feliz road.

Sandra, with "vital statistics" of 35-23-36, won on the basis of beauty, (worth 80 per cent to the judges), poise, 10 per cent) and personality, (10 per cent).

As Western Weekend queen, Sandra will ride on a float near the head of the big parade up Grant avenue at 1 p.m. Saturday, and at 1 p.m. Sunday she will ride a horse into the newly built arena at the Novato Horsemen's Assn. club grounds at the end of Bugeia lane as a start for the Western Weekend rodeo.

As Maid of Marin, she will represent Marin County in the Maid of California contest at the state fair in Sacramento on Aug. 30.

At Saturday's contest, a tearful but smiling queen accepted the winner's trophy, a bouquet of roses and gift certificates from several Novato merchants, from Donald DeBeaumont, contest chairman.

The contest was attended by representatives of three groups sponsoring the queen: The Novato Junior Chamber of Commerce, Novato Horsemen's Assn. and Veterans of Foreign Wars, Donald V. Westlund Post.

Other contestants were Sheri Tresch, Joanna Azevedo, Sharon Catherine Phaneuf, Nikki Baranski and Sharon Lee Viorel.

Tourists By Thousands Visit Marin, Jam Parks, Beaches

The summer season began in earnest at Samuel P. Taylor State Park this weekend and Marin's other parks and beaches attracted their share of weekend excursionists.
Taylor Park's camp ground of 85 sites was filled Friday. Among the 110 cars were 25 from out of state, carrying license plates of Alaska, Texas, Iowa and Kansas, reported park ranger Bill Allison. A total of 4,500 persons visited the park over the weekend.
Muir Woods National Monument was bulging at the seams with 7,112 visitors logged in. "That's about all we can handle

Assembly Gives Approval To Transbay Tube

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The Assembly today voted final approval of a rapid transit tube across San Francisco Bay.
The bill now goes to Gov. Edmund G. Brown for signature.
Its approval by a 68 to 1 vote came on the heels of an Assembly 64 to 0 vote in favor of a seven-man Golden Gate Commission to study the possibility of putting all Bay Area transportation facilities under a single agency.
This bill was returned to the Senate for agreement on amendments.

'AT LEAST COST'

The rapid transit tube bill, by Sen. John F. McCarthy (R-San Rafael), said "The Legislature finds that the relief of vehicular congestion on the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge can be obtained most efficiently and at the least cost in public funds and with the greatest promotion and accommodation of commerce and navigation through providing an underwater rapid transit tube."

Assemblyman Richard H. McCollister (R-San Rafael), who handled the bill in the Assembly, said actual determination of construction of the $115,000,000 tube would hinge on a vote of the people on a 500 million dollar bond issue for its construction.

TOLL MONEY

The bill also permits the use of $750,000 in Bay Bridge toll money for engineering and planning of the tube.

Six members of the proposed Golden Gate Commission would be appointed by the governor and the seventh would be the director of the state Department of Public Works.

The bill, also by McCarthy, in addition and advisory commission of 14 members appointed by the governor. They would include cities and counties in the bay area, representatives of the Golden Gate Bridge District and labor and business.

The commission, given $250,000 with which to operate, must report to the Legislature in 1961 and is instructed to study port, harbor, airport, bridge and other metropolitan transportation facilities.

Burned Marin Boy In Fair Condition

The condition of Richard H. Ferris Jr., 2, was reported to be fair today at Marin General Hospital.

The child was taken to the hospital last week with severe burns on his face and hands, and lesions on his chest. His pajamas caught fire when he lit a match.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Ferris of 101 Woodland way, San Rafael.

The family requested blood donations be made to replace blood required for transfusions for the boy.

City Wants Money To Widen Thoroughfare

San Anselmo City Atty. John G. Buresh disclosed today he is researching the law to determine whether the City of San Anselmo can legally make Sir Francis Drake boulevard a toll road for out-of-town cars.
"As far as I have searched so far, I believe it is possible," Buresh said.

The Hub City is attempting to get Marin County to participate in the maintenance of Drake boulevard through San Anselmo. City fathers contend that traffic counts show 70 per cent of the cars using the route are "through cars" traveling from one point to another in Marin and neither originating nor stopping in San Anselmo.

Buresh said his proposal is to issue stickers to San Anselmo residents which would exempt them from paying toll for use of the city street. Out-of-towners would have to pay 25 cents.
A toll station would be set up "at some intersection where there is a stop light" between the Fairfax city line and the Ross city line, the attorney suggested.

"I estimate that with 25 cents toll, in one year's time the city could collect enough money to widen Sir Francis Drake and improve it to expressway standards," Buresh declared.

It's 'Now Or Never' In Big Four Talks

GENEVA (AP) — Foreign ministers of the United States, Britain and France met with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko late today in what could be the most critical session of the Big Four conference.

Western diplomats said that unless Gromyko showed readiness to lift the Soviet threat to West Berlin, the talks probably would end in a few days without agreement on a summit conference.

3-Cent Tax On Cigarettes Appears Sure

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A tax of three cents on cigarettes and cigarillos passed its crucial final test in the Assembly today.
The lower house voted 44-30 to approve a compromise conference committee report.

The bill, by Assemblyman Thomas J. MacBride (D-Sacramento), now goes back to the Senate for agreement on the same compromise report, the main terms of which were dictated by upper house conferees.

The cigarette tax bill was described by administration supporters as the "cornerstone" of Gov. Edmund G. Brown's tax program.

If, as expected, the Senate also adopts a conference committee report later today, the cigarette tax will be imposed starting July 1.

The main difference of opinion between the two houses over the bill was whether stamps should be used to collect the tax or whether it should be collected from the wholesaler through an invoice system. Senate conferees insisted that stamps be used.

Action on the cigarette tax came as the Legislature started the last week of its session still trying to settle the same three big problems it faced last January.

By midnight Friday, the 80 Assemblymen and 40 Senators must come to agreement or give up on a water program, the state budget and the governor's appeal for $252,750,000 in new or higher taxes.

Brown appeared supremely confident that he will win a victory on all three issues.

Car Overturms; Injuries Minor

Mrs. Helena I. Siversen, 35, suffered only minor injuries when her small foreign sports car overturned Saturday on Highway 101 about 100 yards south of the Forbes overhead.

Russia Breaks Nuclear Test Ban Deadlock

GENEVA (UPI)—East-West nuclear test ban negotiations took a major jump forward today when Russia agreed with the United States and Britain to convene a new scientific conference on high altitude explosions.

The decision to bring scientists together here on June 22 hurdled another of the technical roadblocks delaying a test suspension agreement at the eight-month-old nuclear conference.

The decision came after the Soviets agreed to allow the experts to make recommendations on the tests. Both the United States and the Soviet Union presented separate proposals for such studies last Monday when the conference resumed after a four-week recess.

The experts will report back to the nuclear conference within one week.

Outside the three-power communique, the United States and Russia agreed to allow the experts to discuss all information on high altitude tests gathered since the experts met last July.

The United States then presented the detailed Berkner report which claimed that these underground tests were much more difficult to detect than previously estimated and that the new information would have to be taken into account in working out any worldwide ban on atomic and hydrogen tests.

Ike May Go To People For Legislation

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower is considering going directly to the people in a personal campaign to get action by Congress on some of his major legislative proposals.
This was revealed today by Republican National Chairman Thruston B. Morton after a White House conference with the President.

Morton, a Republican Senator from Kentucky, said he also believes the President will play an aggressive role in the 1960 presidential campaign — to the limit that his duties as chief executive will permit.
Morton volunteered after his talk with Eisenhower that the President is thinking of going directly to the people — making one or two major speeches outside of Washington — on behalf of his legislative program.

'JUNIOR AMBASSADOR' — Donald Collins, 11, packs his bag in preparation for his flight to Stockholm and then Lohja, Finland where he will be one of four Bay Area junior ambassadors at a summer camp sponsored by the Children's International Summer Village, Inc.

Mill Valley Boy Going To Finnish Youth Camp

An 11-year-old Mill Valley boy is one of four Bay Area youngsters in the United States delegation to an international summer camp at Lohja, Finland.

Charles Collins, son of Dr. and Mrs. Daniel A. Collins, 700 Summit avenue, Mill Valley, will leave June 28 to fly to the one of five camps sponsored by the Children's International Summer Village, Inc. Other camps are in England, Norway, Denmark and Philadelphia.

Delegates to Lohja, all about 11 year old, are selected for potential leadership qualities. They will go from Japan, Canada, Mexico, France, Israel, Austria, and perhaps some Eastern European nations. They will spend a month at the lakeside camp 35 miles southwest of Helsinki.

The program, founded by Dr. Doris Twitchell Allen, a psychologist at University of Cincinnati, is planned to build international understanding in an age group where emotional prejudices are not fixed. Non-verbal activities will help to overcome language difficulties.

During the program, scientists unobtrusively observe and record their findings from the camp experience. The research is carried further through continuing contact with the children as they mature.

The program operates through voluntary contributions on both sides of the Atlantic.

Leaders of the indoctrination will be Norman Simon and Frank Brand, officers of San Francisco lodges of B'nai B'rith.

A smorgasbord buffet will follow the meeting, Ruby said.

Larkspur Board To Offer Tivel New Contract

The Larkspur School District board indicated Saturday it will offer Supt. Carl Tivel a new three-year contract, but deferred action on his salary pending further study.

Tivel now receives $11,500. His first contract will expire at the end of the current school year.

The board offered new contracts to Gilbert L. Slusher, principal of Larkspur-Corte Madera School, at $9,500 a year; Mrs. Catherine W. Burch, principal of Neil Cummins School, $9,800; Mervin Goocherts, teaching principal of the new Larkspur school, $8,500; Robert Johnson, vice principal of Neil Cummins, $8,000, and Miss Marjorie Whittlesey, district music director, $9,000.

$3,200 INCREASE

The salaries represent a total increase of about $3,200, Tivel said.

In addition, the board granted a 5 per cent across-the-board pay hike to secretarial, custodial and cafeteria personnel. The increases for the 12 employees, effective July 1, will total about $5,500.

Trustees authorized Tivel to screen applicants for the job of assistant superintendent, a new post which will function primarily in the area of business. Probable salary range will be $9,500 to $10,000, Tivel said.

JOB REJECTED

The position was turned down recently by Leland W. Harris, who resigned as assistant county superintendent of schools rather than take a $1,280 pay cut.

The board went into executive session to consider the new employment contracts, then reconvened in open session. Tivel said he is satisfied the procedure was entirely legal. No member of the public attended the session.

Tivel said trustees will hold a special meeting on the 1959-60 district budget before June 30, but no date has been set.

Madera avenue, will be read at the meeting. It urges the sidewalks for children going to and from Larkspur - Corte Madera School.

I-J RED-FACED, HUMBLE; GAVE WRONG DATE

The Independent-Journal is always eager to bring its readers news of upcoming events they may wish to attend, but it overdid it Saturday.

Someone "goofed" and listed for Sunday a folk dance festival at College of Marin which is actually scheduled for July 12.

Many persons went to the college Sunday in hope of attending the festival and were disappointed to find nothing happening. One woman reported she invited guests from the peninsula who stayed overnight to be present at the festival.

To all of these, the I-J apologizes with extremely red face.

The correct announcement is that the 14th annual "Fun in Marin" public dance festival will be held July 12 in the College of Marin Gymnasium, Kentfield at 1:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m.

Reserve Unit At Hamilton Nation's Best

An Air Force Reserve unit based at Hamilton Air Force Base has been voted the best in the nation.

The 4th Air Force's 8500th Squadron was judged the "most outstanding" Air Reserve navigation squadron in the country by Continental Air Command headquarters in New York, it was announced today.

This Bay Area unit was the first to graduate a class from the three-year "ConAC" navigation curriculum, and has a near-perfect record in combat readiness. Members of the 8500th Squadron are available for immediate active duty in a national emergency, using special "vest pocket orders" which authorize the individual reservist to proceed directly following any radio, television, newspaper or other announcement that an emergency is declared.

2nd Petition Asks Election On Sandspit

A second petition calling for a referendum on sublease of Sausalito's city-owned sandspit for commercial development is scheduled to be presented at tomorrow night's Sausalito City Council meeting.

Joseph G. Wilson, attorney for the Sausalito Committee to Save the Sandspit, said today the action was intended "to cover all the bases." He predicted Sausalito City Atty. John B. Ehlen would advise the council to reject the petition. If he does, Wilson said that he has already prepared a court action.

Wilson earlier presented a referendum petition bearing some 600 signatures, seeking to force the city council to call an election on its approval "in principle" of the proposed commercial use of the sandspit.

Rejected by Ehlen, the matter is now pending in Marin Superior Court.

The second referendum petition is against the council's subsequent action approving the sublease of the sandspit to San Franciscan J. Eugene McAteer and his associates, who plan to build a restaurant and shops on the strip of land.

Also on tomorrow night's agenda is a discussion of possible acquisition of surplus Army property extending roughly from the area over the Waldo Tunnel along the city boundary to the bridge frontage road.

The council will also set a hearing date on adoption of the city's general plan, hold a hearing on the proposal to require a minimum of 2,500 square feet per living unit for apartments, and consider revocation of use permits granted to restaurateur Sam Zakessian.

Falling Rock Kills Mountain Climber

YOSEMITE NATIONAL PARK, Calif. (AP)—Brain injuries killed mountain climber Don Goodrich, fatally injured Saturday while climbing 12,600-foot Mt. Conness with four companions.

An autopsy yesterday showed the 27-year-old University of California graduate student had a fractured skull and brain lacerations. He died while being carried down 11 miles of twisting mountain trail to Tuolumne Meadows.

Goodrich's companions told park rangers they thought he was injured when a slab of rock was dislodged just above him as he climbed, roped to the other climbers.

The falling rock toppled him from his perch. He dropped 35 feet and dangled unconscious at the end of his rope until the other climbers lowered him 125 feet to the talus slope below.

Redwood Students Win 4 Auto Show Prizes

Redwood High School won four out of six classes in yesterday's all Marin high school auto show to win the big trophy awarded the school accumulating the most points.

The event was the first of its kind held in the county and was to benefit the American Field Service exchange student program at Redwood High school, the host school.

While entrance was limited to high school students, they were allowed to show family cars. These, however, were not so much in evidence as automobiles owned by students themselves.

Jan Siemens of Kentfield, a Redwood student, won a trophy with her polished, spotless Model A Ford. Other Redwood winners were Boone Morrison of Belvedere, showing a 1949 MG-TC to win the foreign sports car division; Ken Pieri of Kentfield, showing a white Thunderbird to win the American sports car division, and Clinton Bidwell of Greenbrae, winning the hotrod class.

Winners of the custom car class was San Rafael High School student Rich Becker, Mickey Harn of San Anselmo, a Sir Francis Drake High School student, won the stock car division showing a white Chevrolet Impala.

Boone Morrison Redwood senior was chairman of the affair, assisted by exchange students Sandy Boyer and John Chambers and many other Redwood students.

At the special request of American Field Service headquarters in New York, Boone was today writing a pilot plan of the event to be distributed to high schools throughout the country. It seems the idea is as new to most United States high schools as it is to Marin schools.

Ex-Deputy Jailed In Scuffle At Ex-Wife's Tiburon Home

A former Marin deputy sheriff, who holds a special deputy's card, was jailed yesterday at his ex-wife's home in Tiburon on suspicion of disturbing the peace, drunkenness and resisting arrest.

Sheriff's deputies said they had to use force to arrest Harry Richard Graywood, 38, who stands 6 feet 3 inches and weighs more than 200 pounds. Deputy D. L. Greeson said Graywood kicked them repeatedly, and tore the badge off Deputy William Bradford's uniform during the scuffle.

Graywood, unemployed, gave a San Francisco motel as his address.

Margery B. Lamont, 38, medical secretary, who lives at 2110 Mar East in Tiburon, called for sheriff's help at 2:35 a.m. She said she had been bothered by Graywood ever since they were divorced five years ago.

When officers arrived, Graywood came around the corner of the house and wanted to know what the officers were doing at his home. He then followed the deputies inside and chased his ex-wife into the bedroom. Greeson had to use force to remove him from the room.

Graywood was freed on $600 bail and is scheduled to appear in court tomorrow afternoon.

VIOLENT END FOR A LANDMARK

The "Pine Tree Home" at 1006 Fifth avenue which long belonged to the family of onetime County Coroner Stephen Eden went down today under the blows of a demolition shovel. Ghilotti Brothers of San Rafael have the contract to pave the lot for additional playground and parking space for St. Raphael's Church and School. The Catholic Archdiocese of San Francisco purchased the property for $46,250 earlier this year from Doris and Gretchen Eden. DEAF, BLIND GIRL GRADUATED

Jackie Coker, 31, of Napa, puts a hand to the cheek of College of Pacific President Robert Burns as she "hears" him speak of her achievements prior to presenting her with her diploma at commencement exercises in Stockton last night. Miss Coker, deaf and blind since her seventh year, was among the 445 students receiving degrees. She was graduated with honors and received a bachelors degree in sociology. Miss Coker, holder of a Helen Keller Scholarship award, is believed to be the fourth person in this country to have earned a college degree despite a double handicap. State Weighs Convict's Lie Test Results

Results of the lie detector test given John Henry Fry at San Quentin Prison yesterday are being weighed with other evidence by the state Adult Authority as Fry's application for pardon is being considered.

Fry, 52, is serving time at the prison for a slaying which another man has confessed. Richard T. Cooper, who last week said he, and not Fry, killed Fry's common-law wife Elvira Hay, was given the lie detector test, also.

The pardon application must be investigated by both Cecil Poole, the governor's clemency secretary, and the Adult Authority. Chairman Fred Finsley of San Rafael said last week that the authority "did not feel comfortable" about making a decision yet.

If Fry is freed, according to legal sources, he can seek compensation for the time he has served. To do this a recommendation must be made to the state Board of Control, which would place an application before the Legislature.

In past cases, amounts up to $5,000 for false imprisonment have been granted.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon goes to San Diego today to receive the first honorary degree conferred by the University of San Diego.
He will leave tonight for Washington, D.C., after a busy three days in Southern California.

Nixon, his wife Patricia and daughters Julie, 13, and Tricia, 10, spent most of yesterday at Disneyland. They helped inaugurate the pleasure park's six million dollars worth of new attractions—a submarine fleet, a monorail and a replica of the Matterhorn peak.

Saturday, Nixon returned to his alma mater, Whittier College, for commencement exercises. He dedicated three new buildings, addressed graduates and joined in his class' 25th reunion.

Two Fires Cause Busy Day For Tam Valley Fire Chief

Tamalpais Valley Fire Chief Herbert (Bud) Owen had a busy day yesterday.

The department in full force rolled out to 645 Glenwood avenue, bright and early, to destroy a partially burned cabin as a training exercise.

While the shed was blazing merrily, the department received a call that a grass fire had broken out at 525 Midvale avenue.

Owen left a standby crew at the blazing cabin while his department rushed to put out a grass fire, which the chief said was started by children playing with matches.

Then it was back to 645 Glenwood to finish the training exercise.

A man in a wheel chair, reported rolling merrily down Francisco boulevard near the Copy Cat Bar in San Rafael last night, sent San Rafael police speeding to the scene about 6 o'clock.

Officer A. M. Newman found the wheel chair parked at the curb near Harbor street, but the "driver" was gone.

The impact sent the Ward vehicle spinning into the car of Albert James Crocker of St. Paul, Minn., who was driving west on Third street.

Announce Way To Help Drain All 8 Sinus Cavities Without Discomfort

New decongestant tablet for sinus congestion sufferers acts both to drain clogged sinus cavities and relieve distressing head pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) Announcement has been made of a new tablet development which has the remarkable ability to help drain clogged sinus cavities and thus relieve congestion and pressure. The headaches, pressure pains, stuffed-up head, nasal drip, clogged breathing—all the unrelenting symptoms the sinus sufferer knows so well—are attacked directly by improving drainage of the sinus areas.
Most remarkable of all is the fact that this is accomplished with extraordinary speed and without discomfort of any kind. This new tablet does its remarkable work internally, through the blood stream. It deposits into every drop of blood plasma a new medication which is carried to the sinus area, where it

Nervous System's Role With Allergies Explained

by Dr. Robert W. Pearce

Children and adults who are overly sensitive to certain food, cloth, hair, or perhaps pollen in the air are said to have allergies. Perhaps you are allergic to something yourself.

Have you ever wondered why only some people are allergic to strawberries or eggs? And why others are able to eat all the strawberries and eggs they want?

The blame or cause of the allergy cannot be the food or pollen since some people are not bothered at all. The trouble then is something within you.

Allergies and many other illnesses are caused by poor functioning of the nervous system.

Pearsall was stopped by two San Anselmo police officers at 5:30 p.m. Saturday at Center boulevard and Madrone avenue. In his car were two San Anselmo girls, 16 and 15 years old who had been staying in a Novato foster home as wards of the court; another 16-year-old girl and two 19-year-old sailors.

A county-wide bulletin had been issued for the San Anselmo girl safter they were reported missing Friday night. The other girl had told her mother she was staying overnight with a girl friend, police said.

Police said the girls joined Pearsall at 7 p.m. Friday and spent the night driving around East Bay cities. The two other sailors joined the group at 11 a.m. Saturday and did not know the girls were runaways, police reported.

Yountville Patient Dies On Picnic

Frederick Charles Fourcade, 69, who was on a 20-day leave from the Veterans Hospital at Yountville, suffered a fatal heart attack at Bolinas wharf Saturday afternoon while on an outing with his nephew, Tyler Rugg Sturdevant of Walnut Creek.

Cause of death was determined by an autopsy performed at Russell and Gooch Mortuary in Mill Valley. Fourcade had a long history of heart trouble, his nephew told sheriff's officers.

A patient at the veteran's institution since 1941, he had been at his nephew's Bolinas cabin since Thursday. They were having a picnic with Sturdevant's wife and three children when Fourcade collapsed, according to Deputy Coroner John Martin.

His nephew ran to the Bolinas firehouse. Firemen administered oxygen for 10 minutes before the victim was pronounced dead by a physician.

Fourcade was a plant engineer for Golden State Co. for 19 years prior to his retirement. He was a native-born Californian and spent his entire life in the state. He was a veteran of World War I.

ROMANTIC SHOWER FOR ROYALTY

Belgian Prince Albert of Liege and his bride-to-be, Italian Princess Dona Paola Ruffo di Calabria, are showered with rose petals during official visit to Liege last week. The couple will be married in Brussels next month. (AP Wirephoto)

Italian Princess, Baudouin's Smile Bring Belgian Royalty To People

BRUSSELS (AP)—King Baudouin's newly-found sex appeal and a pretty Italian princess have worked a two-week wonder on the Belgian monarchy's sagging popularity.

The 28-year-old bachelor king found his smile on a three-week tour of the United States and remembered to use it on his return home.

Until then he had been an aloof, unsmiling young monarch, appearing never to have forgiven his people and politicians for forcing the abdication of his father, King Leopold III, in 1951.

After returning June 1 from the United States, Baudouin held his first news conference in his eight-year reign.

Nervous at first, he unlimbered and with emotion told how deeply moved he had been by the welcome his people had accorded him—the most demonstrative he had ever received.

The wonder-working princess is Dona Paola Ruffo di Calabria, who will become Baudouin's sister-in-law July 2.

MAY WED BELGIAN KING

Princess Marie Therese of Bourbon Parma may become Belgium's queen, according to a Belgian newspaper report. The newspaper said King Baudouin, 28, will announce his engagement to the French princess within a month. (AP Wirephoto) when she marries Prince Albert of Liege.

Albert is Baudouin's 25-year-old brother.

Dona Paola, 21, a shapely blonde, arrived in the wake of Baudouin's new popularity.

Thousands flocked to Brussels International Airport to cheer her arrival.

Two days later, Paola and Albert rode through the Brussels streets with the route well advertised in advance.

Last week the couple visited Liege; Paola took it by smile and storm. Saturday, she wound up her tour of Belgium with an official visit to the Flemish port of Ostend.

The result: another resounding triumph, and the monarchy's stock higher than at any point during Baudouin's reign.

If the king would only take a bride—and rumor says he will this year—all would be happy the throne and most Belgians.

French Unions Call Off Rail Strike

PARIS (UPI)—French labor unions avoided a showdown clash with President Charles de Gaulle's government on his wage-freezing austerity program today by calling off a threatened railroad strike set for tomorrow.

The unions agreed to withdraw the strike order following a last-minute conference with Public Works Minister Robert Buron.

Acting on behalf of the government, which owns the rail network, Buron proposed to open a new round of wage talks with the union.

All major unions—Catholic, Socialist and Communist—agreed to the truce offer and issued a stay-on-the-job order.

More than 360,000 railroad men had planned to walk out for eight hours starting 4 a.m. tomorrow despite a government order that they stay on their jobs.

No Brutality, So Jury Spared Rapists' Lives

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP)—The jury which convicted four white youths for the mass rape of a Negro coed decided against the death penalty because there was no evidence of brutality, the jury foreman said last night.

A. H. King, a Tallahassee plantation owner, described how the verdict was reached as an atmosphere of calm returned to Florida's capital city after weeks of tension.

King said that "on the basis of the testimony before us there was evidence of threats with a gun and knife but no brutality was involved."

The foreman said the case was decided on "the law and the evidence" without any consideration of race.

"We would have returned the same verdicts if the defendants had been four Negroes," King said.

Four Negroes are awaiting execution in the state prison for raping white women.

The four defendants appeared stunned by the verdict. They were whisked off to Raiford State Prison after the jury reported at 12:35 a.m. yesterday.

Tallahassee Negro ministers made references to the trial in their services. Rev. David Brooks said prayers were offered for the coed and the four youths.

All was quiet on the all-Negro Florida A&M University campus where the victim was a freshman. Passive demonstrations were staged there last month.

The four youths will remain at Raiford until their sentencing which is expected to take place in about 30 days.

98 Safe As Cable Ship Bursts Afire In Atlantic

LONDON (AP)—Fire raced through a British ship laying cable 500 miles out in the Atlantic early today, forcing 98 persons to take to the lifeboats.

The survivors—86 crew and 12 supervisors of the cable-laying job—were picked up by the 5,326-ton German freighter Flavia, bound for Hamburg.

Among these rescued were 10 Americans, employees of the American Telephone & Telegraph Co.

The cable ship, the 4,534-ton Ocean Layer, was bound for France, stringing cables along the ocean bed, when a fierce blaze broke out in the engine room.

Within 15 minutes of an SOS reporting the fire, Capt. A. MacPherson Ross radioed that he had been forced to order abandon ship.

In the scramble to get away from the flame-swept hulk, two men were left aboard and for a while believed to be lost. Spotted by lookouts aboard the Flavia, they were taken off in a small boat.

There was no word that anyone had been injured. The sea was calm.

Oversea Supply Agency Cites Three Marinites

Three Marin civilian employees received special recognition last week in connection with their work at the Overseas Supply Agency at Ft. Mason.

Helen L. Foster, 34 Elizabeth way, San Rafael, was presented a check for $150 for an "outstanding" employee rating over an extended period. Mrs. Alice M. McCabe, 16 Dell Lane road, Mill Valley, earned a certificate for submitting a job improvement idea. Mrs. Holly K. Rapp, 181 Bollinas road, Fairfax, was commended for the successful completion of the Army's basic supervision course.

Hours after the rescue the Ocean Layer was still burning.

The Ocean Layer, the world's second largest cable ship, was helping to lay a new Atlantic cable from Newfoundland to France.

COOL ME, MADAM

Old women once held curative powers—or so folks believed. Their wrinkled hands laid on feverish brows were thought to cool the fever. Now, in this golden era of modern medicine, we have more reliable methods of reducing temperatures. But, remember, a temperature is only a symptom... not an illness in itself. Fevers have many causes... some minor... some serious. So, be sensible. When you or a member of your family is ill, let your doctor do the diagnosing and prescribing. Then, if medication is necessary, let us fill his prescription promptly and accurately.

Good And Bad News On State's Fiscal, Tax Fronts

This is the last week the State Legislature will be in session in Sacramento. Friday midnight, by law, the legislators must exhaustively fold their briefcases and steal homeward.

Hundreds of bills must be considered in these five days. Most of them will cost money—lots of it.

A good sign and a bad sign have appeared on the financial horizon in the past few days. The good sign was the report of Gov. Edmund G. Brown's financial advisors that the business recovery would indeed, as Republican legislators have said all along, far exceed their estimates. The state can expect an extra $32,000,000 in taxes of various kinds as a result.

By coincidence, this just happens to about equal the amount the solons have trimmed from the governor's tax budget thus far.

The bad news came from State Treasurer Bert A. Betts. He said he had accepted a bid on sale of $100,000,000 in California Veterans Aid bonds at an interest rate of 3.9446 per cent, highest interest rate in 15 years or so. It will cost Californians 4½ million dollars more than if the state could have obtained the money at the national average for such loans.

Why has this happened?

Perhaps there are two reasons. First is that young Treasurer Betts may not have the financial know-how and contacts to get the best rates for the state, as did his predecessor.

Second is that bond buyers are scared stiff of the attitude of the free spending Legislature and the record—by 10 per cent—budget which is in process of being adopted.

Betts complained the bond merchants did not give credit to the state for facing up to its "fiscal responsibility."

The bad news should be a warning to the Legislature that it shouldn't go on a spending spree because of the good news. If the state gets more revenue than expected, the taxpayer would prefer to see his taxes cut—or at least not increased—rather than adding more services.

How College Dollar Almost Was Spent

While we're talking about taxes we'd like to call your attention to a news story which came across our desk the other day. It said:

"SACRAMENTO (UPD)—The State Division of Architecture announced today that a low bid of $318,000 for constructing tennis, handball and shuffleboard courts at California State Polytechnic College was offered by Maino Construction Co., San Luis Obispo."

Before you blow your brains out over the way our higher education dollars are being spent, let us tell you the happy ending.

The State Department of Public Works rejected the bids as too high. They'll have to design cheaper shuffleboard courts.

ONE WAY TO BETTER GOVERNMENT

Twelve New York City employees were recently given awards, averaging $100 each, for their suggestions on how to improve the efficiency and economy of municipal government.

It was estimated that, as a result of the proposals, New York City taxpayers would be saved $50,000 a year. In addition everyone would benefit from the improvements made in the handling of city affairs.

Government employees are in a unique position to serve the common good of all and thus add a noble purpose to their daily tasks.

Just as the home business education or any other sphere of influence needs to be continually refreshed, so must government, whether local, state or national, constantly be renewed or revitalized.

You and others like you can cooperate with conscientious government employees in taking up the conduct of public affairs. Keep ever aware that God has delegated a particular role for you to play in this regard. No one can substitute for you.

"With Thee is the fountain of life; and in Thy light, we shall see light."
(Psalms 35:10)

Inspire more, O Holy Spirit, to promote economy and efficiency in all phases of government.

Are You Hot? Then Think Cool! Pretend To Be Iceberg, Mint Julep

By ED CREAGH
For HAL BOYLE

WASHINGTON (AP) — So you're hot?

Your clothes hang limp on you, sweat beads trickle down your chest, your vision fuzzes, your brain goes numb?

Nonsense. It's all in your mind. You can beat the heat in a matter of seconds if you will just follow one simple rule: Think cool.

Close your eyes. Imagine you're an ice cube. Shrink yourself and pour yourself into an imaginary little plastic tray. Truck yourself into a refrigerator and drink in the delicious smells of celery, salami, and other goodies as you slowly freeze.

Or play iceberg. Think of the frothy cool North Atlantic lapping your chin, with the bulk of you submerged in that blessed salty coolness.

Don't make the mistake of being as cool as a cucumber. Once, in the interest of science, I took the body temperature of a cucumber. It was two degrees higher than mine, which averages 102.3.

Think of frigid mountain lakes, or a car motor on a January morning in Alaska.

Turn yourself into a mint julep. Sash around luxuriantly in your frosted glass shell. Don't drink yourself, however. Alcohol raises the body temperature.

This cool-think bit won't work for everybody, though.

SOME PEOPLE get more relief by hot-thinking. That is: Imagine yourself even worse off than you are.

Like you're unloading bananas on a New Orleans dock with the sun pouring globs of hot lava on you.

Or you're a steak sizzling frantically on an outdoor grill, abandoned by a cook who has reeled off in search of something tall and cooling.

Whew! It's enough to bring what you're after, isn't it?

THIS SYSTEM of identifying your self with something, or somebody else is not entirely original. A Russian named Stanislavsky made quite a name for himself by teaching actors to make like chairs, cabbage leaves, mandrake roots and other unlikely objects.

Some Thoughts On Gambling

EDITOR,

Independent-Journal:
Your Editorial of Tuesday, June 9: Gambling.

Atty. Al E. Bagshaw, when he was district attorney, believed that a law should be enforced, but regardless of his declaration of "10 years ago," the charitable and religious organizations continued to hold their annual festival, and, still do.

Local law enforcement has never attempted to suppress the lottery, and/or gambling, therefore the present enforcement agency has no doubt taken it for granted that it was the proper thing to do, to permit and to participate in charitable lottery.

Possibly this could be suppressed by discarding the present method of selecting a police chief, which is somewhat ancient; the chief to be appointed by City Council after he had qualified by proper written and oral examination given by some outside agency, such as the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the California Highway Patrol Academy at Sacramento, or Northwestern University.

He would not be subject to political pressure for next election, and could enforce the laws properly. If he failed in his enforcement, then replace with one qualified to do the job. Brains, not brawn is the accepted key to efficient work these days, and I am sure we have the material in San Rafael if properly selected.

From all indications, the laws of the United States do not apply to the Irish sweepstakes, but believe that Gov. Edmund E. Brown could balance his budget by using the same system, but not to have gambling as Nevada now has. Most everyone is with the Governor in his present stand on gambling, but, why let millions of dollars leave California to foreign land and states when it can be spent here to help finance the excessive spending by California government.

How many other juveniles have purchased the sweepstakes tickets? And now, how many more will try? These two kids had a winning ticket and it was advertised. Many more have no doubt purchased, but no one knew of it because they did not win. We allow horse racing in California, and you may place a bet on the Phillies at the track, therefore the sweepstakes could be legal, as that also is horse racing.

Summary:
The Chief made an error—he should know better.

The Kids were lucky—other will try to be.

The governor should go along with the sweepstakes idea, but leave the gambling to Nevada.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

The Montreale reports a ticklish moment in the busy life of one of the city's leading lights. He had taken his son to lunch at a newly-opened oyster bar, and after they had exited, asked the boy, "Well, how did you like your first taste of oysters on the halfshell?" The boy admitted they had looked so uninviting to him he hadn't eaten any. "But your plate was empty when the waiter took it away," the father pointed out.

"I didn't want to hurt your feelings," explained the boy, "so I slipped them into my pocket when you weren't looking. I'm trying to find a place now to get rid of them." Then a look of horror came over his face. "They aren't here," he groaned. "I must have put them in the pocket of the man sitting next to me!"

Silently, father and son quickened their pace and slipped around a corner.

You must have heard about the cowardly counterfeiter. He still has the first dollar he ever made.

Two Sons And Father All Earn Diplomas At Graduation Events

The Mark Corys of Mill Valley seem to be taking this current graduation business mighty seriously.

Seems that 14-year-old Gregory Cory will graduate from Edna Maguire School Thursday evening. On Sunday evening, champion swimmer Mark Cory III will graduate from Tam, en route to Dartmouth where he has an academic scholarship.

To make the picture complete the boys' father, Lt. Col. Mark E. Cory Jr., now on duty with the Army at the Presidio, took his bachelor's degree at S.F. State last week, completing an interrupted university training earlier at the University of Oregon.

YOU MAY RECALL that Sausalito City Engineer John Oglesby submitted his resignation last fall to be effective at the end of the year.

But John continued to appear at successive council meetings in spite of his efforts to "ease off" on his duties. Seems that each month the city fathers asked John to stay on until another acceptable engineer could be located.

Apparently, none has been found. John is still there and, we understand, no one even bothers any more to ask John to stay on another month.

OUR TIBURON Peninsula society correspondent, Corena Green, is a lady of many talents.

Last week, Corena became a not-too-eager volunteer fire fighter when a small grass fire broke out near her home in Little Reed Heights. Showing amazing fortitude, Corena removed her dressy shoes and proceeded to tramp down smouldering grass in her stockings feet.

Concerned more about her shoes than her feet, she was relieved to find that firemen had carefully dragged hoses around her "parked" shoes leaving them unscathed.

Latest reports say that her stockings suffered but her feet came through in fine shape.

WE ARE HAPPY to report that one of Mill Valley's newer "activities" is apparently having smooth sailing.

Bill Pouloupoulos, who made an excellent name for himself during the five years he headed the physical therapy department at Marin General Hospital, set out on his own a couple of years ago to start a rehabilitation hospital on the Tiburon Peninsula. Things did not pan out as planned, so in February he ventured out on his own, on Mill Valley's Miller Avenue, hoping for the best.

We understand from several doctors that Bill's place has turned out to be just what they wanted in the southern part of the county and that they are keeping him busy.

WE ARE OVERJOYED to report that Java is back.

Java is the small poodle owned by Mrs. Marge Mapes who lives in the Sausalito ark next to the one that mysteriously burst into flame a week ago.

You may recall that Mrs. Mapes appealed to whoever it was that was seen taking Java away during the height of the fire. Last week, Java returned under her own power, found the ark and scratched at the door asking for admittance. She's all right.

Joint Chiefs Of Staff Not Furnishing Advice, Leadership Country Needs

It is well that the public should understand what lies behind the inter-service strife which is today plaguing the Pentagon more fiercely than ever.

This strife is reflected in the struggle of the Army, Navy, and Air Force to get its hands first on new weapons and to pre-empt them as a means of enlarging its role and expanding its budget.

It is reflected in the failure of the Joint Chiefs of Staff to reach firm, joint decisions on the size of the services — so that we may know if we have a proper balance between general war and limited war capabilities — and the role each shall play.

THE REASON it is urgent that the public understand the nature of this struggle is that there is no solution to it short of a much greater unification at the top of the services and there will be no such integration unless public opinion supports it. There are just too many vested pressures against it.

Is this just a bothersome problem or is it so serious that something adequate ought to be done soon?

All the evidence anyone needs on this subject, it seems to me, is contained in the able, calmly worded, candid report which came from the chairman of the House Committee on Appropriations, Rep. George H. Mahon (D., Texas), who knows as much about the Pentagon as any two Secretaries of Defense combined.

Mahon offers this restrained but somber conclusion:

"THE JOINT CHIEFS of Staff, as a corporate body, is not providing the kind of advice and leadership which the country requires."

He then quotes the testimony of Gen. Maxwell Taylor, Army Chief of Staff, as follows:

"I think that our weakness is in not determining standards of sufficiency — how much is enough for the atomic retaliatory force, for air defense, for limited warfare forces, for strategic airlift and sealift, for reserve-type forces.

We never look at the problem (as a whole) and determine whether each function is properly supported . . ."

Why are the Joint Chiefs of Staff so often concerned with the lesser problem and fail to come to grips with the larger problems?

THE BLUNT TRUTH is that the Joint Chiefs are not really a corporate body at all. Each is the ambassador of his nearly sovereign service and each does not assume to exert much of a voice, if any at all, in each other's decisions.

With the changing shape of warfare, the very survival of each service is at stake when it doesn't get control of a major new weapon and major role using it.

It is because each member of the Joint Chiefs has such a massive vested interest in his own service, the Joint Chiefs as a body is not, as Mahon soberly reports, "providing the kind of advice and leadership the country requires."

This deficiency cannot safely be tolerated.

Map Approved For Monte Maria Services District

The Marin County Boundary Commission Friday approved the map of the proposed community services district for the Monte Maria subdivision at Novato.

Petitions are expected to be circulated within the next few days by the members of the Monte Maria Assn. seeking formation of the district.

According to E. Donald King, president of the association, the district would need to levy taxes averaging $7.58 per home per year during the first three years to amortize a bank loan. Then the amount per home would be $3.40 a year for maintenance costs.

The money would be used to improve three center islands on Sunset parkway at the entrance to the subdivision. King said if Novato is incorporated that any tax would remain a special one only for Monte Maria residents.

Policewoman Quits San Rafael Force

Mrs. Yvonne Abert, San Rafael policewoman, whose home at 311 San Francisco boulevard, San Anselmo, was badly damaged by fire two weeks ago, has resigned. Police Chief Charles J. Chiesa announced today.

Mrs. Abert turned in her resignation yesterday in order to give more attention to caring for a small child in an apartment the Aberts took until their home is rebuilt.

Chiesa said it would be several months before the family is resettled.

Mrs. Abert's resignation leaves only one policewoman in the department, Joanne Walsh. Chiesa said he would name a successor in a week or two.

Two Are Graduated From 3R School

The first class ever to graduate from the 3R School of San Rafael consisted of two persons. They are Kemp Dowdy, son of Dr. and Mrs. Kemp Dowdy of Novato, and John Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brown of Ross. Both received diplomas Friday for completion of their elementary schooling.

The school opened its doors as a year-round institution only last September, after having been operated as a summer school only for the three previous years.

Maguire School To Graduate 243 Thursday

Graduation ceremonies which will award diplomas to the 243 graduates from the eight classes at Mill Valley's Edna Maguire School will be held next Thursday at 8 p.m. in the Ruby Scott auditorium of Tamalpais High School. Daryl A. Hopkins, Edna Maguire principal, said the program will open with the Pledge of Allegiance and national anthem, followed by the invocation by Rev. D. Murray Hammond, rector of the Mill Valley Episcopal Church of Our Saviour.

The welcoming address will be by Principal Hopkins. The orchestra, directed by Mrs. Eileen Schroeder, will play several selections. A featured number will be a concerto for two violins by Valerie Meacham and Kris Kraft.

Student speaker will be Stephen Long. The school chorus will sing, directed by Mrs. Eileen Reed, featuring soloists Sandra Vandyke and William Perridge.

Adult speaker will be Col. William A. Hamilton of Mill Valley, former Mill Valley mayor and recent chairman of the country grand jury.

The ceremonies will conclude with award of diplomas by Supt. G. Robert McConnell and Principal Hopkins.

City Manager, Wife Have New Daughter

A six-pound baby girl, Susan Marie, was born to San Rafael City Manager Dan E. Anderson and his wife Irene at Marin General Hospital last Thursday night.

Two Marin Sailors Cruise Great Lakes

Two Marin sailors are participating in "Operation Inland Seas," a cruise of 28 U.S. Navy warships to cities on the Great Lakes this summer.

They are: Frank E. Elliott, interior communications electrician third class, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Elliott, of 59 Balboa avenue, San Rafael, and Ralph M. Wells II, seaman apprentice, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph M. Wells of 208 Chapman drive, Corte Madera. Elliott is aboard the submarine Sablefish; Wells, aboard the high speed transport Klein-smith.

Integration Survey Taken In Marin City

A survey among Marin City Negroes to learn their feelings and reaction on local integration plans is being conducted under sponsorship of the Marin branch of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People.

A progress report on the survey was given at an NAACP meeting in Marin City Community Lounge on Thursday night.

Mrs. Alvin Bynum, NAACP

spokesman, said the survey is being conducted by Al Hicks, a former Marin City resident who now attends a San Francisco law school.

The contest for NAACP queen closes June 15 and the queen will be crowned June 20 at a San Francisco ceremony. Marin City girls who are competing in the Northern California contest are Noel Beard, Ethel Phillips and Joyce Janis, Mrs. Bynum said.

Gallinas Sewer Unit Annexes Eichler Land

Las Gallinas Sanitary District last week annexed the Terra Linda property of Eichler Homes, Inc., a portion of which lies within the 1,090 acres recently annexed to the City of San Rafael.

This is the first time that any city property has been annexed to the sanitary district, said Mrs. Annie M. Reagan, district secretary.

Mrs. Reagan said no conflict was apparent in the double annexation. However, garbage in the sanitary district is collected by Marin Garbage Disposal under an exclusive franchise. The San Rafael city charter outlaws such exclusive franchises on a citywide basis.

Mrs. Reagan said the joint jurisdiction might make it necessary for the San Rafael Sanitation District and Las Gallinas Sanitary District to meet jointly on some matters.

The Las Gallinas board also set for July 9 a hearing on annexation of unit 10 of Terra Linda, being developed by Kenney Corp. This also lies within the new City of San Rafael annexation.

Several residents of the 110-home Golf Links Tract, between Highway 101 and the Santa Venetia School, appeared before the board to request the annexations of their property. It was decided to have a special meeting of residents of the area on June 25, with the sanitary board in attendance, to consider annexation of the whole section.

Last week's meeting was the first to be held in the district's new treatment plant building on the Smith Ranch road north of San Rafael. Subsequent meetings will be held in the same location, with the next one set for June 22 at 7:30 p.m. to plan the budget, Mrs. Reagan announced.

No-Casualty Record Falls At Reed School

Rex Noah broke his arm Friday playing ball on the Reed School playground and thereby broke the school's perfect casualty record for this year, according to Robert Gow, principal.

Rex, nearly 14, was hit in the arm by a baseball just four days short of the end of school when he will graduate from the eighth grade. He was taken to Marin General Hospital for treatment.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Noah, 8 Windward Way, Belvedere.

Tax Funds Allocated

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Marin county's share of highway users taxes for May amounted to $46,486, State Controller Alan Cranston reported today.

Cranston said total apportionments for the month were $24,350,783, including $5,986,569 for the counties, $2,282,056 for cities, and $16,082,158 for the state highway fund.

San Anselmo Star Pitches No-Hit Game Over S. F. Nine

Lefty Bobby DeRosa pitched the greatest game of his sparkling career yesterday in a no-hit, 6-0 performance for the San Anselmo Ongaro Plumbers over the San Francisco Red Sox in a game at San Anselmo.

Pirates Gain As Face Wins 10th Straight

Who is the top winner among major league pitchers? It is too bad the quiz fad is over on television. A man could run up a fortune with this question.

Maybe you think it is Lew Burdette. Or Darren Spahn. Or Sam Jones. Or Early Wynn. Or Hoyt Wilhelm. You are wrong. The name is Elroy Face of the Pittsburgh Pirates. As of June 15, 1959 he stands at the head of the class with a shiny 10-0 record. In fact, he hasn't lost a game since May 30, 1958. The only other pitcher who can say that is Bobby Feller and he has been retired for years.

Face is a relief pitcher, of course. He seldom works very long, but he is ready to crank up that arm and stroll in from the bullpen every time his boss, Danny Murtagh, waves his hand.

Danny called for his face-saver yesterday in the first game against Los Angeles. The score was tied at 3-3 in the eighth, and Face came in and shut the door in the face of the Dodgers, striking out four while the Pirates pulled it out 6-3. They also won the second game, 5-2. Vern Law beating Carl Erskine on a pair of home runs by Dick Stuart.

Those Pirates are making menacing gestures again while the Milwaukee Braves are staggering around. They're running a strong third, only 3 1/2 games behind.

When Milwaukee was shut out 6-0 by Chicago's Dick Drott, just off the disabled list, the San Francisco Giants missed a chance to take over the National League lead. Instead, they dropped 1 1/2 games behind the Braves by losing two at Philadelphia 7-5 and 6-3.

St. Louis won its sixth in seven starts, 5-4, on Gino Cimoli's single with the bases loaded in the ninth inning of the opener, but Cincinnati came back to get a split, 3-2. Jim Brosnan, traded to the Reds by the Cardinals six days earlier, beat his old mates.

Pittsburgh hung a defeat on Los Angeles relief man Clem Labine in the opener, breaking through for three runs in the eighth. Stuart's two-run homer in the first started the veteran Erskine on the way to an early shower in the finale.

Drott, a 15-game winning rookie in 1957, showed his old form for the Cubs while scattering seven Milwaukee hits. He had pitched only 10 1/2 innings before yesterday.

Roy McMillan broke a finger and was lost indefinitely to the Reds in the opener in St. Louis, won by Lindy McDaniel in relief.

Speedboater Killed

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (P)—Dr. Bernie E. Taylor, Orlando physician and speedboat racer, died yesterday in a threeboat spill that cut short the first regatta on Daytona Beach Speedway's newly-built Lake Lloyd. Taylor, 55, suffered a fatal neck fracture when catapulted out of his hydro runabout.

S. F. MUFFS CHANCE TO TAKE LEAD

PHILADELPHIA (UP)—The San Francisco Giants open a 13-game home stand in Seals Stadium tomorrow night fully aware that even the lowliest can rise up and bop you in the National League.

Last place Philadelphia dealt the Giants a pair of big losses yesterday as the Phillies came from behind in both games to win by scores of 7-5 and 6-3. And the Phils were presented four unearned runs in each game.

The Giants missed an opportunity to move into first place as faltering Milwaukee got beat by Chicago. San Francisco is now a game and a half behind the leaders.

During the upcoming home-stand, the Giants will play three games against Cincinnati, three with Milwaukee, four with Pittsburgh and three with Philadelphia.

The final run came in the fifth frame on a triple by Don McGinnis and a sacrifice fly by Arrigoni.

It was San Anselmo's third victory without defeat.

Biggest Threats Muff Chances In U. S. Open

MAMARONECK, N. Y. (P)—Almost anybody could have won the 1959 U.S. Open Golf championship if he could have shot a good final round in the wind and cold at Winged Foot.

Billy Casper won it with his first three rounds and a putter that stayed red hot through the fourth yesterday. His 72-hole score was 282.

It could have been Ben Hogan, who won the British Open in worse weather conditions than these. It could have been Bob Rosburg or Mike Souchak, who were very much in the running up to the last few holes.

It could have been Sammy Snead if the weather had permitted two rounds on Saturday when he shot the best round of the tournament and was raring to go.

Instead it was Casper, a paunchy, pleasant 27-year-old who has been a professional only about five years and who isn't regarded as an outstanding player from tee to green.

The weather at the handsome 6,873-yard Winged Foot in suburban Westchester County was a tremendous factor. With in a week it ranged from searing heat to pleasantly cool, and drenching thunderstorms that forced the first postponement of a round in the history of the tournament. Finally it turned up a day of strong, variable winds and low temperatures.

It didn't make much difference on the putting greens and that's where Casper won the $12,000 top prize—and where bespectacled Bob Rosburg took second place.

Casper is the youngest and least experienced player to win the Open in recent years.

He started chipping and putting when he was a kid in Chula Vista, Calif., because he thought that was more fun and less work than flailing away on the practice tee.

During the four rounds of the 59th Open, Casper used 115 putts in putting together rounds of 71-68-69-74—282.

LEAD FADES

Three strokes ahead of Hogan at the start of the final round, Casper saw his lead begin to evaporate. Five one-putt greens saved him at the start as he hacked his way through traps and the still soggy rough. He still was one under par at the 63-hole turn, but bogies on the 10th and 12th holes sent him over.

At this stage Rosburg and Souchak, playing behind, pulled up on even terms.

"After I got over par I just tried to stay even from there on," he explained afterward. "I tried to get it up there so I could sort of nudge it in."

He holed out for a 74, then spent 40 uncomfortable minutes sweating it out in the clubhouse while his two nearest made their bids.

Souchak was first. He was great for 10 holes, hit a couple of bogies and came to the last three needing two birdies to tie. He wound up in a tie with his former boss, Winged Foot pro Claude Harmon, in third place at 284.

Rosburg, who got into contention with birdies on the 11th and 12th holes, came to the 16th in the same position. His long putt on the 16th rolled into the cup and out again. On the next green, a 60-footer stopped inches short of the cup. On the 18th another long one was a little short.

Hogan, whose quest of a fifth Open title faded with a 76 on the last round, and Snead, who has yet to win in 19 attempts, wound up tied with 287 totals. A stroke ahead of them were three others who couldn't produce the one low score they needed on the last day—Doug Ford, Ernie Vessler and Arnold Palmer.

I Shouldn't Have Won Says Casper

By BILLY CASPER (Written for UPI)

MAMARONECK, N. Y. (UP)—The way I played yesterday I shouldn't have won anything.

The pressure was building up plenty by the 14th hole, especially where I heard bits here and there that Mike Souchak and Bob Rosburg didn't seem be having as much trouble in the high winds as I was.

But on the 14th I got what I considered the most significant putt of the round. It was a 10 or 12 footer for a birdie three and that sure eased the pressure because I hadn't had a birdie since the fifth. And I did have four bogeys. After the birdie at the 14th I was just hoping for pars to hold on.

HIGH WINDS

Those high winds made the course play at least three shots harder than the previous day in the rain and mud. It was different on every hole. On one hole the wind would hold the ball high and on the next one it would force the ball low.

Several times I had to change my mind on what club to use. And I didn't always make the right choice.

But I relied on my judgment all the way. My caddy was a good boy, but I wanted to ride or fall on my own.

I was lucky in one thing. When I first started on the pro tour I was a chronic hooker off the tee. Plenty of hours I spent learning to fade my drives. But yesterday for some reason I was hooking them right into the wind and my driving was superb all day.

TOUGH WAIT

Maybe I hurried too much on the last few holes, but I wanted to get my score up on the board and let those other fellows worry about me and not me about them. I played just as fast as I could—and bogeyed the 15th and 17th.

The worst thing was sitting in a window overlooking the 18th green watching first Mike Souchak and then Bob Rosburg coming down the last hole needing a birdie to tie me. It was a terrible wait and I sure regretted a bad chip shot I made on the 17th that cost me a bogey five. If I'd just a par there the wait would have been easy.

Tigers Hand Yanks Double Loss

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
The woods are full of Yankee-killers these days. Men like Tito Francona, Gene Woodling, Frank Lary, Don Mossi. But the greatest of all is Charley Maxwell.

They call Babe Ruth "The man who built Yankee Stadium." Well Maxwell could be the man who tore it down. Maxwell has hit 14 home runs this year. Seven of them were against the Yankees. Against the rest of the league he is hitting .209. Against New York he is batting .390. Putting them together you have a man batting .250 with 45 hits and 42 runs batted in, 18 of them against New York.

"We keep this man working," moans Casey Stengel. Maxwell did it again yesterday. Whitey Ford was rolling along with a four-hit shut-out. He had a 2-0 lead with two out in the eighth. Two singles then boom. Maxwell hit a tape measure drive into the first row of the third deck in right field. That did it, 3-2. Just to rub it in, the winner was Frank Lary who had just left the game for a pinch hitter.

It was Maxwell's ground rule double that drove in the first run of the second game when the Detroit Tigers knocked out Duke Maas in a four-run first inning. They went on to sweep the doubleheader 8-2, moving into third place.
CHISOX LEAD
Chicago clung to the American League lead by a half game. The White Sox came from behind twice to top Baltimore 9-6 and 3-2 in 10 innings, dropping the Orioles into fourth place. Cleveland kept right on Chicago's heels by beating Washington twice 9-5 and 12-6 with Minnie Minoso. Jerry Casale held Kansas City to five singles for a 6-1 victory. Their second game was called off because of rain and cold.

A crowd of 50,183 saw the surging Tigers demolish the Yanks in New York. With Lary and Paul Foytack winning, Detroit finished the day only two games behind Chicago and charging fast.
Early Wynn was credited with his 258th victory in the White Sox' first game. He helped himself with two singles and two doubles. A dropped ball by Bob Boyd set up Chicago's winning run in the 10th inning of the second game, giving Luis Aparicio a reprieve. Singles by Nellie Fox and Al Smith drove him around with the winning run.

Minoso had a tremendous day for the Indians with two homers, a double and two singles in the doubleheader at Washington. A total of 11 homers were hit, seven by the losers. Jim Lemon had three and Harmon Killebrew hit No. 21. Rocky Colavito smashed No. 20 for the Indians.

JACK HANLEY'S REPORT

Players Miffed At Night-Day Schedule

By JACK HANLEY
I-J Correspondent

MINNEAPOLIS—Homeward bound from their two-week road trip to Milwaukee, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, the Giants stopped in Minneapolis today for an exhibition game with the Minneapolis Millers.

The Giants have been playing this extra game with the American Association team for the past three years in the name of charity to aid worthy local projects.

Today was the only date that the Giants could fit the Minneapolis commitment into the tight National League schedule even though it meant a 40-day stretch during which they will play more than 40 games due to double-headers.

No grouching was heard among the players because of the charitable nature of the Minneapolis exhibition. However, there have been some rumblings among National League players over playing a night game in one town and an afternoon contest in another the next afternoon. There used to be a rule which prohibited playing a day game following one at night.

AT ALL-STAR time next month in Pittsburgh during the Fourth of July weekend, the unofficial rumblings may be presented in official form to Warren Giles, president of the National League.
The day-game-after-a-night-game situation usually occurs when a team winds up a series with the Dodgers in Los Angeles Coliseum and then flies on to San Francisco. The Dodger home schedule is top-heavy with night games for the very practical reason that the Coliseum crowds are larger at night.

During the Memorial Day weekend a fortnight ago, the Chicago Cubs played the Dodgers in the Coliseum Friday night and the Giants in Seals Stadium at 1:30 p.m. the next day. That Memorial Day Saturday the Cubs had trouble seeing Mike McCormick's southpaw curves and fast balls. Mike struck out 11 Cubs that day.

THE FACT that the Cubs did not hit their San Francisco hotel sacks until 3 a.m. or so following their chartered plane flight from Los Angeles may not have been a major factor in their inability to cope with McCormick who was exceptionally sharp that day.

They couldn't do any better the next day, Sunday, against Johnny Antonelli. He also whiffed 11 Cubs who should have had a full night's rest before facing the ace southpaw. At least they had no legitimate excuse for not getting one in this instance.

Whether or not there is any solid merit to the players' feeling on the matter, it looks like it is scheduled for the agenda of items always discussed when the boys gather at All-Star time.

INCIDENTALLY, how does this lineup sound for the N.L. representatives in the All-Star game:

Pitchers: Lou Burdette, Harvey Haddix, Antonelli, Johnny Podres, Roy Face and Don Drysdale. (What, no Warren Spahn?)

Catchers: Del Crandall and Smokey Burgess.

First basemen: Orlando Cepeda, Gil Hodges and for sentimental and bench reasons, Stan Musial.

Second basemen: Johnny Temple and Daryl Spencer. (If you insist add Bill Mazeroski and Charlie Neal but Spencer in recent weeks has out-played and out-hit not only those two, but Temple as well.)

Third basemen: Eddie Mathews and Jimmy Davenport. (If Davenport doesn't get the bid over Don Hoak and anyone else, excluding Mathews, a Congressional investigation should be ordered.)

M.V. Golfers Win At Indian Valley

Mill Valley Women's Golf Club had three winners in the North Bay Women's Golf Assn. tournament at Indian Valley Friday. They were Mrs. Lynn Sumpter, who tied for third place in Class B, Mrs. John Kobel, second in Class D and Mrs. Howard Kemper, first in Class E.

At the Mill Valley course Friday Mrs. Joseph Wittenmeier had low net with 102-36—66. Mrs. Edward Abramson placed second with 90-22—68. Mrs. Hugh Cavalli third with 95-26—69 and Mrs. Phil Schaffer fourth with 103-32—71.

Fathers Play Ball

Fathers of Little Leaguers played ball in Mill Valley yesterday and the dads of the American League players won quite handsily, 13-1, over the National League pops.

S.F. OR L.A. MAY GET TITLE FIGHT

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A delegation interested in staging a middleweight championship fight this summer took a look at the new Los Angeles Sports Arena and left with gleams in their eyes.

The group, representing Carmen Basilio and Gene Fullmer, has been looking over prospective sites for the bout to decide a successor for Ray Robinson's vacated crown.

Although a number of cities have been considered, Promoter Norman Rothschild of Syracuse, N. Y. had this to say yesterday:

"San Francisco and Los Angeles have the inside track and from what we've seen, I'd say the fight would be in one of these cities."

Accompanying Rothschild were Joe Nitro and Johnny DeJohn, co-manager of Basilio, and Marv Jensen, Fullmer's manager.

All praised the new sports arena which will be opened July 6 with a world bantamweight title fight between champion Alphonse Halimi of France and Mexico's Joe Becerra.

Olmedo Wins Title

BECKENHAM, England (AP)—Alex Olmedo, U.S. Davis Cup star, won the Kent Tennis Tournament singles title yesterday with an 8-6, 6-3, 6-4 victory over Denmark's Kurt Nielsen. Darlene Hard beat Sally Moore 6-1, 7-5 in an all-American final in women's singles.

Arcaro In Spill, But Not Seriously Hurt

NEW YORK (AP)—Gritty little Sword Dancer, who won a thrill-packed $145,500 Belmont Stakes that left jockey Eddie Arcaro in a hospital and his mount dead, is going to have a vacation.

"Before the race we decided to rest him up come hell or high water," said Elliott Burch, the young trainer for the Brookmeade Stable of Isabel Dodge Sloane of Virginia and New York.

"He's had a hard campaign since the Florida Derby at Gulfstream Park, the rough Kentucky Derby, the Preakness, the Metropolitan Handicap, and now the Belmont. He is temporarily on the shelf. He's alright, but these hard races have to take their toll."

Burch expressed sorrow for the accident which befell the King Ranch's Black Hills and Arcaro on the bend approaching the turn for home in the mile and one half race. The colt broke a leg, throwing Arcaro into the mud unconscious. Lake Erie, another horse in the race, fell over them but jockey Walter Blum was unhurt.

Arcaro still was in a hospital today, recovering from a concussion, sprained neck muscle, contusions of the left shoulder and numerous bruises.

Asked if it would be as much as two weeks before he rides, Arcaro replied: "Hell, no. I don't figure to be in the hospital more than a few days. There's nothing broken. I'm still a bit dizzy, but as soon as that goes away I'll be ready to ride again."

Arcaro still is unable to explain what happened. "Something must have been hurting him because he was trying to lug in all the way. He had plenty of zip, but he wasn't running free. All the time I was moving up in the back stretch I was fighting to keep him from lugging in. Then, when Bagdad went out a bit from the rail and Manassa Mauler was tiring, there was a spot between them. I set him down and headed for the hole. That's when it happened. He took a couple of stumbling steps and went down."

Burch said he planned to let up on Sword Dancer's training for two or three weeks and confine his exercise to slow gallops.

Bagdad, who took the lead on the turn but was eventually the runnerup by three quarters of a length, was flown to Los Angeles last night.

Trainer Joe Dunn said Bagdad would start in the $100,000 Hollywood Derby June 27 against Tomy Lee, the colt who nosed Sword Dancer out in the Kentucky Derby, and Silver Spoon, the filly who beat Tomy Lee in Saturday's Cinema Handicap at Hollywood Park.

Harvard Downs Yale
NEW LONDON, Conn. (AP)—Harvard's unbeaten varsity crew beat Yale by 2½ lengths in their annual 4-mile race Saturday.

Bev Hanson Leads American Women's Open Tournament

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Beverly Hanson of Indio, Calif., carries a two stroke lead into the final 18 holes of the American Woman's Open Golf Tournament today.

A pair of deuces gave the long-hitting Miss Hanson a 3-under-par 73 for a 54-hole total of 223 yesterday, two up on Louise Suggs of Atlanta, Ga., who shot a 75-for runnerup post beginning the last round.

Victory today would give Miss Hanson her first tournament win of the season, after being the leading ladies money winner a year ago.

She went into the lead after taking birdie 2s on the 8th and 17th holes. An eight iron shot put her ball eight feet away from the 8th pin. On the 17th, a three iron landed 10 feet from the pin. She sank both putts.

Nine others in the field of 40 pros and amateurs were bunched between 226 and 230.

These included Mickey Wright of San Diego, who uncorked the tournament low round with a 4-under 72 place around of 226 and third place going into the final round over the 6,397 yard course.

Milk More Radioactive
WASHINGTON (UPI) — The amount of deadly radioactive Strontium-90 in milk jumped in March at all but two of 10 public health service sampling stations across the country.

The service said in a statement last night that the strontium in all the milk still was far below the maximum safe level set by government scientists for lifetime exposure.

Milk tested at St. Louis contained the most strontium-90, 22.5 micromicrocuries per liter. That compared with the maximum permissible limit of 80.

The increase in radioactivity is attributed to the extremely "dirty" Soviet nuclear tests held last fall.

'I'm Not Crazy,' Long Shouts

GALVESTON, Tex. (AP) — A battery of attorneys huddled hastily today to avoid an open hearing where Gov. Earl Long of Louisiana wants to fight for release from a Texas mental clinic.

The 63-year-old Long, contending he was railroaded into John Sealy Hospital three weeks ago, has a habeas corpus hearing scheduled for today.

The court granted the hearing when Long filed an application he was brought to the hospital under heavy sedation, shackled hand and foot.

But the attorneys hinted the hearing today may not come off, in view of a closed sanity session tomorrow.

Long's three court-appointed attorneys, together with legal representatives of the governor's wife and Sen. Russell Long (D-La.), the governor's nephew, indicated they did not want the open hearing today.

Long shouted to newsmen from his second floor room at the hospital last night and told them, "I'm no more crazy than you are."

"They led me in here in handcuffs," Long yelled to newsmen.

"They wanted to kill the loan shark bill," yelled Long. "They wanted to pass the sales tax. They wanted to kill my election bill."

The governor referred to the recent fiscal session of the Louisiana legislature. The loan-shark bill proposed a relatively minor change in the interest rate on small loans. The election bill was designed to change the state Democratic primary from Dec. 5 to 19. The sales tax Long mentioned was not an issue. The other two bills died.

None of these measures stirred public interest. It was legislative opposition to Long's proposal to liberalize voting qualifications, which would have permitted more Negroes to vote, that sparked Long's tirade before a joint session of both houses of the Legislature.

Murphy was booked in the county jail on a complaint signed by Putner, charging drunkenness, disturbing the peace, and assault and battery. Bail was set at $350.

Gould suffered a gash in his forehead, according to California Patrol Officer Don Dowling. He was taken to San Rafael General Hospital for emergency treatment by a

Zonta Hears Talk On Missile Defense

A visit to the Nike Hercules Missile Site at San Rafael was the locale of the evening meeting of the Zonta Club of Marin County.

Capt. Arthur C. Shepard, commanding officer, Battery C, 2nd Missile Battalion, 51st Artillery of the United States Army Air Defense Command, was host for the evening at, in his words, "Your community's Army Air Defense installation." He, with Mrs. Shepard and Maj. and Mrs. E. Scheibe, were hosts at the dinner preceding the talk and film.

Captain Shepard showed pictures of the various missiles, Ajax weighing 1,200 pounds; Hercules, 8,000 pounds, and Zeus, 17,000 pounds, the latter being an anti-missile missile. The Ajax range is 25 miles, the Hercules, more than 75 miles.

A missile is a flying aircraft which does not require a pilot. Nike is named after the Greek Goddess of Victory.

The speaker stated that the San Rafael site is the second to become operational in the Bay Area, and the first to be located in a civilian community, dedicated to the important task of insuring that this area is effectively protected from air attacks. The Nike-Hercules, capable of reaching long ranges and high altitudes, and capable of being armed with an atomic warhead, gives a very effective tool by which to accomplish this task.

Since 1953, this missile system has been protecting the United States with Nike-Ajax.

All the services work together on this.

Mrs. Courtland Benites, Zonta president, thanked Captain Shepard and Major Scheibe for their hospitality to the club. ONLY MINUTES FROM HEART OF PARIS

Charmingly secluded in its wooded setting in the River Seine, yet only five minutes from the Champs Elysees, main stem of Paris, is the Isle de la Jatte, above, favorite picnic spot for Parisians at the turn of the century. The isle, the river and all the picturesque and historic spots of Paris are on the itinerary of the Marin European tour which departs Sept. 29 for 20 days under sponsorship of the Independent-Journal. The $1,049 tour brings these scenes within YOUR reach. Register early, using tour coupon which appears frequently in the I-J.

Teen-Ager Response To Survey 'Astounding'

Marin's teen-agers are vitally interested in their recreation, according to a survey by the Marin County Recreation Committee.

The committee recently sent out more than 400 questionnaires to high schools in Marin, and according to Mrs. Berta Kessel of Novato, executive board member, the response was "astounding."

The questionnaires have been turned over to the group work and recreation committee of the Marin Council of Community Services. An evaluation of them should be ready by next week, said Mrs. Florence Scott, executive director.

Mrs. Scott said she did not know the exact percentage of overall response, but that it was 100 per cent from some high schools. Questionnaires were sent to San Rafael, Tamalpais, Drake, Redwood, Novato, Tomales and Marin Catholic high schools.

Here is a sample of what was asked: What is your recreation program? Is it in the home? Is it year around, on evenings, weekends? Who sponsors it — the school, the city, or is it private?

What age groups are included; for instance, does it include children and adults? What facilities are available, at what times, and what kind? Are sports available? Is there supervision?

How great is the need for recreation in your community? Is your program successful? Do you have any suggestions?

Fire Chief Ired By False Alarms

Friday night for the second time in as many weeks the Kentfield Fire department roared out on a house-fire call only to find it was a false alarm.

Fire Chief John R. McLeran, who takes a dim view of unnecessary runs with the three pieces of equipment which customarily answer such calls, says the calls seem to come from the same person in the Manor road area. The voice, he says, sounds like a mature woman, and the report is authentic-sounding.

Endangering lives, says McLeran, and using costly equipment is an expensive way to work out a grudge on neighbors, as these calls seem to be. Steps are being taken, McLeran reports, to investigate the "cry wolf" calls.

Junior Colleges To Charge Tuition

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Legislation permitting California junior colleges to charge a $180 tuition fee for out-of-state students has been approved by the Legislature.

The assembly passed the bill, by Sen. Nelson Dilworth (R-Hemet), Friday after proponents explained that state colleges are currently collecting a similar fee from out-of-state students.

The work of the committee has been to determine which areas of recreation in Marin need concentration. Results of these deliberations are to be turned over to the Marin County Board of Supervisors.

The committee previously recommended to the board that a permanent commission be set up to deal with recreation. This has been done, and the work of the committee is near an end.

It was hoped that the committee would be able to clean up its work Thursday night, Mrs. Kessel said.

However, the teen-ager report and one on land acquisition and finance are still not completed, and a special meeting to consider them will be held at 8 p.m. June 25 in one of the municipal courts at the courthouse.

"This definitely will be the last," Mrs. Kessel said.

A 13-page parks, beaches and boating facilities report, which has been amended several times, was adopted Thursday, and as soon as it has been put into final written form will be made available to the public, Mrs. Kessel said.

Mrs. George Alpers of San Rafael, a member of the new commission and a former member of the committee, said a similar survey on teen-age recreation was attempted last year. However, the questionnaires then were distributed too late in the school year to make response effective.

Festivities for the graduating class will begin at 6:30 o'clock this evening at the school, with a dinner and dance given by the 7th grade class under chairmanship of Mrs. Carl Willits.

Following the dinner the 7th and 8th graders will dance to music by Perry McDonald's orchestra, provided through co-operation of Local 6 of the American Federation of Musicians.

The traditional 8th grade picnic and swimming party will be given this year at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Larsen of Woodacre, on Thursday. Dr. Rudloff has agreed to attend and act as life-guard, and will also assist with games such as water polo.

Sausalito Police Car In Collision

A Sausalito police car, red light flashing but siren silent as it sped south on Second street, collided with two cars turning into Second street from South street. The police car, driven by Officer John Higgins, was passing two cars at the intersection when the collision occurred at 1:50 a.m. Saturday, reported Police Chief Howard Goerndt. No one was injured.

Driver of the first car was Richard Larson Reid of Millbrae. Behind his car was a sports car driven by Gerard Smith Samplem of 119 Carlotta circle, Mill Valley.

Officer Higgins was on his way to investigate a report of a man assaulting a woman at 122 South street. Officer Higgins never got there. Another officer went, reporting "there was nothing to it," Chief Goerndt said.
